

Improving Immigrant Worker Health

presented by the Center for Occupational and Environmental Health

Friday, June 23, 2017

3:00—5:00 p.m.

UC Davis International Center, Multipurpose Room 463 California Avenue, Davis, CA 95616

Moderated by John Balmes, MD, Director, COEH North

- Featured Speakers -

Marc Schenker, MD, MPH, Founding Director of the COEH UC Davis

A brief history of Immigrant Workers and Occupational Health

Linda Delp, PhD, MPH, Director of the Labor Occupational Safety and Health Program UCLA

Occupational Health of Immigrant Workers: The Role of Worker Advocacy Groups

Don Villarejo, PhD, Founding Director of the California Institute for Rural Studies

Agricultural Workers: The Challenges of Assessing Occupational Health Status, 1990-2017

Ellen Widess, JD, Former Director of CalOSHA

The Challenges of Regulatory Approaches to Improve Immigrant Worker Health

- RSVP no later than June 15th to amcrose@ucdavis.edu or (530) 752-5254 -

Special Retirement Event to celebrate the career of

Dr. Marc Schenker

Distinguished Professor of Public Health Sciences and Medicine

5:00 p.m.

UC Davis International Center
Multipurpose Room

