

Western Center for Agricultural Health & Safety

Funding Opportunity

Deadline: April 2, 2018

WCAHS is dedicated to improving the health and safety of farmers, farmworkers and their families in Western agriculture.

Rapid Response and Short-term Funding Opportunity:

- Do you need funds to jump-start an urgent research topic?
- Do you need extra funding for additional data collection?
- Do you have a new idea that you want to explore the feasibility of?
- Are you convening stakeholders to discuss an emerging issue?
- Are you developing training or outreach materials?

WCAHS is seeking proposals for short-term projects that address research, outreach, or educational issues of agricultural health and safety in Arizona, California, Hawaii, and/or Nevada.

- Award:
- Funding requests up to $7,500
 - All funds must be expended by September 29, 2018
 - Anticipate funding 3-4 projects

- Eligibility:
- Faculty with PI eligibility in the Western region (AZ, CA, HI, NV)
 - PhD students or postdoctoral scholars in the Western region
 - Community organizations

Submission Instructions: Proposals are due on or before the due date: April 2, 2018, 5 pm PT.
Send all materials in one pdf to: aghealth@ucdavis.edu

Required Proposal Items:

Abstract written for lay audience	<150 words
Project narrative: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Background - Significance - Approach 	2 pages
Budget and budget justification: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Personnel, supplies, and domestic travel allowed - Award limit is for total costs 	1 page
Biosketch

Awardees will be expected to participate in WCAHS events and seminars and acknowledge WCAHS in publications, on materials produced, and in presentations by NIOSH grant title and number.

Contact Heather Riden with any questions – heriden@ucdavis.edu