

Frontline Supervisor Training

A FREE training course created by the University of California, Davis Western Center for Agricultural Health and Safety.

August 29, 2024

9 am-12 pm

555 Airport Way, Suite E

Camarillo, CA

93010

This interactive training held in Spanish supports frontline supervisors with identifying practical ways to support their workplace health and safety programs within the Cal/OSHA Injury and Illness Prevention Program.

Register
Here!

UCDAVIS
Western Center for Agricultural Health and Safety

Funding for this training was made possible by a grant/cooperative agreement from the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Agricultural Marketing Service. Its contents are solely the responsibility of WCAHS and do not necessarily represent the official views of the USDA.